

Mrs. Karen A. Pierce

August 25, 1946 - August 14, 2021

Karen A. Pierce, of Pittsfield, passed away at home on Saturday, August 14, 2021, after her courageous battle with lung cancer, just shy of her 75th birthday. Karen was the daughter of the late Gilbert and Anne Day. She married David F. Pierce in 1966. He predeceased her in July 1976.

Karen graduated from Pittsfield High School in 1964. She was employed by General Electric and then by General Electric Plastics, PETS Program as an executive secretary.

Karen is survived by her two sons, Jeffrey Pierce and wife Cherie, and John Pierce, both of Pittsfield. She leaves behind five grandchildren, Jessicah Kisselbrock, Justin Kisselbrock (Shawna), Aaron Pierce, Julia Pierce and Angelina Pierce, as well as four great grandchildren, Anastasia, Wesley, Sandra and Violet. She loved them all dearly and spoke of them with adoration to everyone she knew. Karen also leaves behind her longtime dear friend, Frank Foy, who for many years has been there for her in every aspect of her life.

Karen enjoyed all kinds of music, playing the piano, gardening, sewing, knitting, needlepoint, and reading. She especially enjoyed the companionship of her African Grey parrot, Lugar, for 44 years until his passing in 2019. She also loved the company of her beloved dog, Sugar, a bull terrier who now misses her dearly.

She enjoyed the company of her neighbors and had a deep compassion for her close friends and people she knew and loved.

Funeral Services:
