

Laura Skorput Valenti

June 15, 1959 - December 5, 2014

Laura Skorput Valenti earned her wings on December 5, 2014 surrounded by those she loved. Her life was defined by boundless reserves of love, deep loyalty and compassion for her daughter, her family and her friends.

Laura was born on June 15, 1959, the daughter of Christine Dellea Skorput and the late Walter Skorput. In her hometown of West Stockbridge she was known, from the time she was a little girl, as "the social butterfly with an infectious smile." She was a graduate of Monument Mountain Regional High School. Laura went on to receive an Associate Degree from Green Mountain College.

She later moved to Pittsfield and worked for Bloom Business Systems for many years. She was very involved in Downtown Pittsfield and was an active member of the community.

Laura had a talent for creating beauty in the form of fashion and photography. She was a strong individual, overcoming many challenges while still living life to the fullest. Laura was enormously kind, had a beautiful soul, and was a true friend to many.

Her spirit will live on through her daughter, Danielle Valenti, sister Terry and husband Tom Finneran, sister Chris Cobb, brother Walter "Jim" Skorput, sister Jane Skorput, and her mother Chris Skorput, along with numerous nieces and nephews. Laura's father Walter Skorput predeceased her in 2011.

The family would like to express a heartfelt thank you to Laura's personal caregivers, Crescent Manor in Bennington, Vermont, Dr. Era Hanspal at Albany Medical Center, and her Hospice nurse Cathy.

“ I was so saddened to hear of Laura's passing. She was a truly loving, beautiful and kind person. I did not know her as long or as well as others but she touched my life and I am glad to have met her. I offer my deepest sympathy and may your memories of her bring you comfort and peace. I am sure she has found her peace now and will continue to watch over all of us. God Bless.

“ In the very short time I had the pleasure of knowing Laura, I am reminded how unique we all are. Our understanding of how things are supposed to be, can be different in all our lives. How we decide to deal with the trials that are dealt to us we can create our own endings. Laura, thank you so much for helping me as a nurse, accept your decisions to be who you were. I for one, consider you an awesome woman, a beautiful, strong, and talented teacher. You will forever be in my heart. Proof of the Mom you were is to see the Strong wonderful sweet accepting daughter that I had the pleasure of meeting. I pray that your journey ends with health, love, and everything that heaven has to offer. Forever Anita Trask.

“ Danielle, I am from FB THE HD site. I have watched your postings and cried with you. My husband and I were just looking at this and I showed him your Moms pictures. he said "what a beautiful woman". I said I never met her, but from what I have read and seen of her in photos you can tell she was beautiful inside as well as outside. with tears in my eyes, I send you a huge hug and prayers to be said to help you on this next journey.

“ I was not afforded the great blessing of meeting Laura personally before her passing. However, I was fortunate enough to meet her daughter, Danielle about a month ago. Laura's life will be remembered and continually celebrated by me as my friendship with Danielle, who is a outstandingly caring and beautiful person, hopefully continues to grow stronger and stronger. I am thankful to Laura for bringing her daughter into the world....

Dear, Laura... I hope you have found your peace. xoxo

Laura and I were inseparable for a couple of years while growing up in our home town of West Stockbridge. Even though I haven' t seen her for years, she will always be one of my best friends.

So caring, giving, loving and responsible even in her youth.

I am extremely sad, a sadness that will never leave me. A feeling of frustration for not being able to speak with her, to say goodbye.

My condolences to her family, especially Danielle, who I would like to meet one day.
