

Mrs. Lauren J. Bolio

January 19, 1961 - January 28, 2026

Mrs. Lauren J. Bolio, of Peru, Massachusetts, passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday, January 28, 2026, just days after celebrating her 65th birthday. Born in Nassau, NY, on January 19, 1961, daughter of the late Bernard and Jeannine Mitchell McCarron, she graduated from Taconic High School with the class of 1979 and later attended classes at Berkshire Community College in the field of Early Childhood Development.

She worked with special needs children for a time, but for the majority of her career, Lauren worked as a social worker in the public housing sector. She had a passion for helping others, which was clearly evidenced by the genuine care and compassion she had for those she so willingly helped.

Among many things, she enjoyed photography, was an avid reader, mother to her dachshunds, and loved being a grandmother to all of her grandchildren. She loved her family fiercely and would always drop everything if a friend needed her.

Lauren is survived by her beloved husband of 24 years, Craig Bolio, whom she married on February 14th, 2001. She leaves behind her children, Kylie Ungewitter (Matthew McMahan), William Prout, Ryder McFadyen, and her grandchildren Olivia, Dani, Zoey, Relena, Liam, and Autumn, along with a new grandchild due soon, Emilia. She also leaves behind her siblings, Micheal

McCarron (Catherine McCarron), Colleen Hassan (Roger Hassan), Patricia McCarron, and Melissa Tomlin (Eugene Tomlin).

Besides her parents, she was predeceased by her son Daniel Prout and stepson Nathan Weiland.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Lauren for quite a few years and was fortunate to work with her at the housing authority after I retired. She was an inspiration as a social worker. Her skills were amazing, yet more amazing was her relationship with people . How much people respected her and how much she cared about helping. I was fortunate because she was also a friend who always had time to listen and support me. I will miss her and the world will also.
