

Leo Ray Stout

September 20, 1935 - June 1, 2026

Leo Ray Stout, of Pittsfield MA, aged 90, died on June 1, 2026 at Berkshire Place Care Center. He was born in Freeman's Creek on September 20, 1935, in the beautiful mountains of West Virginia, to Jesse Stout and Mary (Woodson) Stout. After graduating from high school, he enlisted in the Marine Corps, serving four years and traveling through Europe and the Caribbean on the USS Wisconsin. He was proud of being a Marine.

He married Anne Shields of Pittsfield MA in 1957. She died in 2023. He spent much of his career as a toolmaker at Beloit E.D. Jones. He enjoyed working with his hands, and maintaining his yard and his tractors. He also loved being outdoors and watching wildlife.

Leo Ray is survived by his daughter, Kate Stout (Geoff Arnold) of Vancouver, WA and his granddaughter Hannah Gravius of Campbell, CA. Family who survive include: Alice Trubach (Dave), sister-in-law Bobbi Jo Stout and Jesse Stout (Betty), all of Sheffield Lake OH, as well as his brother Vincent Stout (Shirley) of Sheffield Village OH, and sister-in-law Betty Lou Stout of West Union, WV.

Funeral Notice:

There will be public services for Leo.
