

Liam Thomas Palmer

November 6, 2024 - November 25, 2024

Our sweet Liam Thomas Palmer, born on November 6, 2024 at 4:25 PM, passed away November 25, 2024.

He looked at the world through the brightest blue eyes he opened on the first day. He spent his days in the sun, going to the park with his big brother, making a trip to his Papa's house, taking family weekend drives, watching the Chicago Bears with his Daddy, and taking walks with his Mama. He met many family members and friends and was celebrated by even more.

He leaves behind his proud parents Ryan Palmer and Emily O'Boyle, and the best big brother, Rory Palmer, along with many family members and dear friends who all will continue to love and honor him each and every day.

Rest easy in the arms of our ancestors who went before you, our sweet angel baby.
