

Linda A. Yon-Kudlate

July 18, 1958 - April 22, 2013

Linda A. Yon-Kudlate, 54, of Dalton Division Rd., passed away peacefully on Monday surrounded by her loving children.

Born in Pittsfield, July 18, 1958, the daughter of Raymond O. and Patricia A. Clark MacWhinnie, she attended the former Mercer School and North Junior High School and graduated Pittsfield High School in 1976.

Linda was employed for the past 15 years at Verizon Inc. as a directory assistance operator. Previously she worked at the former Hillcrest Hospital as a Switchboard Operator. She was also employed at Berkshire Medical Center for many years as a Unit Secretary.

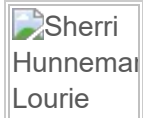

Linda's greatest love was her family. She enjoyed spending time with her children and her beloved grandchildren, bowling in the Four Seasons League at Candle Lanes, and traveling. She was an active member of St Stephen's Episcopal Church.

Besides her parents of Pittsfield, she leaves her daughters, Erin M. Lourie and her husband John of Clifton Park, NY and Ashlee M. MacDonald and her husband Brian of Pittsfield; her son, Ryan G. Yon and his fiancée Megan Stack of Pittsfield; her brothers, Raymond MacWhinnie and his wife Janet of E. Smithfield, PA and Thomas MacWhinnie of Enfield, CT; her sisters, Deborah Sorensen and her husband Carl & Karen Roberts all of Pittsfield; her seven grandchildren, Ethan, Isabella, and Lillian MacDonald, Hannah, Maria, and Owen Lourie, and Leah Verchot; and many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her brother Kenneth MacWhinnie in 1973.
