

Mrs. Lois F. DeGiorgis

September 7, 1934 - February 12, 2021

Mrs. Lois F. DeGiorgis, 86, of Dalton, passed away after a short illness on Friday, February 12, 2021. Born in Pittsfield, MA, on September 7, 1934, the daughter of the late Ray Rattigan and Frances Chapman, she graduated from Pittsfield High School.

Lois worked in quality control for the former A. H. Rice Silk Mill for 35 dedicated years until her retirement.

Among many things, she enjoyed reading and traveling. Lois loved cats and dogs, and especially enjoyed watching dog shows on television.

Lois is survived by her beloved husband of 67 years, Richard R. DeGiorgis, whom she married on July 18, 1953. She leaves behind her children, Sharon Mongeon, Lisa Giles, Richard A. DeGiorgis, and Tracey Mathes, as well as her siblings, Gerald Rattigan, Donna Crawford and step-brother, Arnold Karusian. Lois is also survived by her nine dear grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

“ So sorry to hear about Aunt Lois passing. My thoughts are with the DeGiorgis family. I remember as a child in the lates 60's and early 70's spending lots of time at her house - and listening to "Tie a Yellow Ribbon" on the record player in the dining room! Lois was always SO SWEET and I wish I could be up there to spend some time with you all .. Much love.. Brian George Wilner
