

Lois L. Stockton

July 5, 1923 - January 31, 2022

The matriarch of our family, Lois Lorraine Vestar Denny Stockton, departed this life on Monday, January 31, 2022, surrounded by her family. Mrs. Stockton was born July 5, 1923, to the late Walter Jessie and Katie Betty Horton Denny in North Wilkesboro, NC.

Mrs. Stockton attended Lincoln Heights High School. On Feb. 4, 1941, she married the love of her life, Mr. Wilbert Stockton. After getting married, Mrs. Stockton and her husband moved Pittsfield, Massachusetts and began raising their family.

Mrs. Stockton was very active in her community and local church until the last couple years when she was unable to attend services regularly. When she was unable to attend services as First Baptist, she would watch Pastor Sheila Sholes-Ross on television.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 76 years, Wilbert Stockton Sr, two sons, Wilbert Stockton Jr and Chauncey Stockton, two brothers, Jessie Lee Denny and Walter Denny, and one sister, Peggy Denny Church.

She leaves to cherish her memory, three sons, Ronald (Darlene) Stockton of Laredo, TX. Mark (Becky) Stockton of Rutland, VT and Wayne (Melissa) Stockton of Greenville, SC; Two daughters, Monica Stockton of AZ and Raya

Stockton of Pittsfield, MA; 21 grandchildren, several great grandchildren, a special niece, Sonnie Gail (Rev. Roy) Brown of NC, special extended family, Chris Wilsey of Cape Cod, MA and Ann (Earl) Rompre of CT.

“ Mrs. Stockton, was a very special person in my life growing up, as young kids, the Stockton's were the kids next door we grew up with, we had a blast, she cared for us just like her own kids...She was the matriarch of the neighborhood...I will deeply miss her smile, her kindness...and most of all, her love and friendship....Love, Ro
