

Mr. Louis G. Nejaime

October 6, 1970 - August 18, 2017

Mr. Louis G. Nejaime, 46, passed away on Friday, August 18, 2017 at home after a long illness. Born in Pittsfield on October 6, 1970 the son of Noel “Therese” Nejaime and the late George Rached Nejaime, he was a graduate of Hoosac Valley High School.

Mr. Nejaime worked at the former G. Nejaime’s Cheshire Center store, which was a family business owned and operated by Lou and his family for 25 years. Everyone in Cheshire knew Lou. Some called him an “icon”. While in Cheshire, he also served as an EMT in the volunteer fire department. After sale of the family business, Lou worked in sales, but his favorite job was working at the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY.

He married his wife, Maria, in 2011 and moved to Cooperstown, NY. While living in Cooperstown, he was blessed to have the friendship and love of so many people. He had just recently moved to North Adams to be close to family.

Amongst the many activities he enjoyed, time spent with family around a dinner table was his most favorite. He will be forever missed for his generosity, fast flying jokes and, big heart.

Besides his mother and wife, Lou is survived by his five sisters, Feriale Yan and her husband Louis, Amale Neary and her husband Christopher, Marie McCarron and her husband Michael, Rima Georgeson and her husband Lloyd and, Nadia Nejaime; two stepchildren, Katherine and William, as well as three nieces, Tara, Kaitlyn and Tessa, and seven nephews, Andrew, Alex, David,

Zachary, Christopher, Adam and Blake, all whom he loved dearly.

“ *My deepest condolences to Lou's family and friends. I've called myself the later for over 30 years!
So many great memories of this great man...I remember him cooking us breakfast in my apartment at 2am..after closing the bar. He had to cook, he was the only one sober! But that was Lou. Would do anything for anyone. This world surely is a little darker now that his light has gone out.
I'll miss you, my old friend! Rest peacefully!*
