June 29, 1964 - April 17, 2025

Mr. Louis A. Parreault, Jr., of Pittsfield, passed away unexpectedly on Thursday, April 17, 2025, just months before celebrating his 61st birthday. Throughout his life, Louis was an avid drummer for various bands, including, but not limited to, T-Bone Daddy, Cannonball Express and Scratch Belly.

Besides his mother, Sandra Parreault, Louis is survived by his life partner of 26 years, Marian Harris, and her sons, Daniel and Jacob VanDeusen (Mallory). He also leaves behind the lights of his life, his grandchildren, Connor, Hannah, Eva and Kolby VanDeusen, all of whom he adored.

Besides his father, Louis was predeceased by his sister Sharon Herlihy.

“ Her in Pittsfield today to say goodbye...
Lou Parreault Gonna miss you buddy. Teammates on the school record (at the time 😊) mile relay team, teammates on the swim team because they needed a couple warm bodies to field a team, cruising around in our cars or on our motorcycles looking for girls, cops stopping us and taking or making us dump out our beers and us immediately proceeding to head back over Lebanon Mountain to get more, dragging a beer-ball and booze we bought in NY for some Pittsfield girls (we were 18/19, they were like 17) up into the woods a mile to party, routinely staying out until 2 or 3 AM when we both had to work at 6:30 AM (usually still with a buzz), both of us giving my sister's boyfriend all kinds of shit and my mother yelling at us for it, camping and raising hell in Lake George, laughing at each other when one of us got hurt doing something stupid, getting Angelina's grinders, going to concerts and bars to see tons of bands, getting chased out of some said bars by asshole bouncers 😊, being in each other's weddings, watching you pound the crap out of your drums when your band played, you and Marian hosting and helping my kids band when they had a couple gigs in Berkshire County, and most of all....being my best friend and always having my back. I love you Lou and will miss you incredibly. Our whole family will. Too young to be gone. Rest in peace my friend.
