“ I was so very sorry to read about Maggie’s passing. I first met her working the St. Joseph’s Food Pantry many, many years ago. She had boundless energy and such an engaging personality. Such a pleasure. I remember her from Bagels Too as well. You always received such a genuinely warm greeting from her. I am grateful to have known her. She will be sadly missed by many.

“ Sending lots of love and light to Margaret’s friends and family. My grandmother, Mary Rita Grady Healey always had the best stories about Faye and Margaret. I hope that they are all united and catching up over peanut butter sandwiches and bananas. I was told that as children, they were given peanut butter sandwiches with a banana on the hottest day of the year with no drink. It doesn’t sound funny when I write it, but when Gran would tell the story, her eyes lit up and you could see the love she had for her cousins. Margaret Ann was a lovely lady, lucky to be her cousin! Rest easy, Cuz!
