“ I met Marion several years ago. I remember the smell of coffee and the way she instantly made me feel welcome. We both love animals, especially dogs. She always had a treat and a smile for our dog Roger. She would offer me coffee and fill me in on the latest James Patterson or Tom Clancy novel. She was warm, smart, outgoing, and a pleasure to be with. I will miss her dearly-

“ Marion brightened up so many parts of my life. She was like a second mother to me and a lot of others that's how she got her name "Ma D". Marion always was available to talk to. I wish she could have stayed forever. I consider myself lucky to have had her in my and my husbands life. She was just my kind of person trustworthy, loving, caring and much more. I will always keep her in my memories and miss her. Rest in peace my friend.

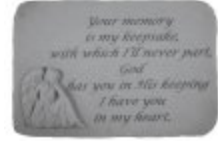

Love Always-
