

Mr. Mark J. Middlebrook

January 12, 1952 - August 5, 2024

Mark James Middlebrook, 72, passed away peacefully on August 5, 2024, at Albany Medical Center with his family by his side. Mark was born to Kenneth and Marilyn Middlebrook on January 12, 1952, in Pittsfield, MA.

Mark had a deep passion for football. He played for Wahconah in high school and later coached youth and high school football in Dalton. Mark also took great pleasure in delivering food to the Loaves & Fishes Food Pantry at the Dalton United Methodist Church every Tuesday. But his greatest love in life was his family, which he shared with Judith Suriner; nothing made him happier than sharing stories about his children, grandchildren, and daughter-in-law.

He was predeceased by his children's mother, Judy, and his parents, Kenneth and Marilyn. He is survived by his daughter, Sarah Suriner, of Dalton; daughter and son-in-law, Dorin and Dan Chapman, of Dalton; son and daughter-in-law, Colin and Megan Middlebrook, of Adams; and six grandchildren, Lucy, Kyle, Kieran, Jack, Aiden, and Molly; sister Susan Salvatore(Peter) of Dalton; niece Dina LaBeau of Dalton; niece Beth Salvatore-LeBeau of Dalton.

“Mark was an integral part of the team at the food pantry. He quietly made a significant impact on the lives of so many. We're all saddened by his loss but grateful to have known and worked with him.

All of us at the Loaves and Fishes food pantry will miss him deeply. Our prayers will be with his family.
