

Mrs. Martha Maxwell

November 29, 1918 - June 18, 2012

Martha was surrounded by her beloved family as she prepared for her final and most significant journey of her life and ours. She passed into eternity Monday, June 18, 2012.

Born in Pittsfield, Ma, November 29, 1918, the daughter of the late William J. and Mary Doherty Potter. She attended the local schools here and was employed as an assembler at the Eaton Paper Co. for 12 years, prior to her marriage.

She was predeceased by her husband, William D. Maxwell, who died June 29, 1994. They would have been married 66 years on June 15, 2012.

Martha was a champion bowler in the 1940's. She enjoyed playing cards with her friends, singing and dancing to her favorite tunes, watching the birds at her feeders and chasing the squirrels away from them! Her most favorite things in the world were her family and grandchildren.

She was a communicant of St. Mark's Church. She leaves two daughters, Marianne Parise and her husband Richard of Lanesborough; Patricia Baker and her husband, Howard of Lanesborough. She also leaves her beloved grandchildren, Kathleen Quetti, Michael T. Danylin, James W. Danylin, Jessica McDowell, Kristen Hoyt, great grandchildren Heather Danylin, Justin Quetti, Jason Quetti, Mikaela Danylin, Kaileigh Baker, and Grayson Hoyt and her first Great Great Granddaughter , Kiley Rose Quetti. She is also survived by her sister in law, Martha Nugent and by many loving nieces and nephews. She was predeceased in death by five brothers and two sisters.

FUNERAL NOTICE

Mrs. Martha Maxwell died Monday June 18, 2012 with her beloved family at her side.

Funeral services will be Thursday June 21 at 11:00 A.M. at the DWYER FUNERAL HOME with Rev.

Joseph Romano, officiating. Burial will follow in St. Josephs Cemetery. Calling hours will be at the DWYER FUNERAL HOME today, Wednesday June 20, 2012, from 5 to 7 p.m.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Hospice Care In The Berkshires, Dana Farber Institute or Children's Hospital Boston in care of the DWYER FUNERAL HOME 776 North St. Pittsfield, MA 01201.

Tribute Wall

CA

“ Marianne and family

Please accept my heartfelt condolences. May her passing be a blessing and as long as there are memories of her, she will always remain alive in your hearts and minds. God Bless you all.

Cheryl Ames

Cheryl Ames - June 20, 2012 at 03:42 AM