

Mary M. Doucette

February 15, 1922 - February 25, 2017

Mary M. Doucette, 95, died peacefully February 25, 2017 at Berkshire Medical Center, with her four daughters lovingly at her side.

Born in Pittsfield on February 15, 1922, daughter of William J. and Elizabeth M. Hynes Quinn, she was a 1940 graduate of Pittsfield High School. Mary was employed as a secretary at General Electric, working for ten years in the Power Transformer Department.

She married George G. Doucette of Malden, MA on October 14, 1950 at St. Mark's Church and they celebrated fifty-six years together. Her greatest joy was being with her family. She richly affected the lives of her loved ones with her caring nature, sense of fairness and humorous ways.

Mary was a communicant of Sacred Heart Church and belonged to the Rosary Sodality. She enjoyed playing golf as a member of Wahconah Country Club. One of her biggest thrills was getting a hole-in-one during an Invitational Golf Tournament at Stockbridge Golf Club. Other passions included bird-watching, bowling, bridge, and cheering for the Boston Red Sox and the New England Patriots. She loved traveling and visited Ireland, Germany, Italy, France, Scandinavia, Alaska, Hawaii, the Caribbean, and all across the continental USA.

Mary is survived by her brother, Richard V. Quinn of Pittsfield; four daughters, Christine Smith of Hillsboro, WV and her husband Michael, Elaine Myers of Pittsfield, Ann Makowski of New Boston, NH and her husband Stan, and Jean Hamilton of Pittsfield and her husband Tom; nine grandchildren, Aaron Cumashot and his wife Hannah, Patrick Cumashot, Adam Cumashot Lauren Myers and fiancé Alex Francis, John Myers, Paul Makowski, Dan Makowski, Tom Hamilton, and Jenna Hamilton; three great-grandchildren, Damian, Eva and Natalie Francis; her goddaughter Nora Czechowski and several nieces and nephews.

She was pre-deceased by her husband George; three brothers, John, William and Joseph Quinn; two sisters, Elizabeth Maston and Eleanor Belknap; and beloved nieces Jean Caracciolo, Barbara Durkee, Kathleen Quinn, Betty Ann Maston and Jane Belknap Hoffman.

“ It was evident that Mary so loved her grandchildren and great-grandchildren as observed by her affectionate glances and tender embraces directed their way while I attended the Makowski/Doucette gatherings throughout the years. A peace came over her while in their company; God's presence shined through for all to experience while this took place. With every new arrival, her caring role as Grandmother and Great Grandmother grew to her delight and pleasure, unquestionably aiding in her ability to live such a long full life. An eternal peace has now been given to Mary so let's all share this among ourselves as we gather together at this time. With Mary now at the Lord's side, remember those glances and those embraces so to provide comfort but keep this in mind, she is waiting for you so she can continue that role she loved so much.

Rest in Peace

Thank you, Jim. Having her as my grandmother and being able to see her give the same caring, fun, and loving traits to my children was a true blessing. We will miss her dearly but know she is watching over us and we will see her again.

“ Dick Quinn and Doucette families and friends, I am sending my thoughts and prayers in hopes they bring some comfort during this sorrowful time. I remember Mary from the times she would visit the family home on Hungerford St. I was just a child and I thought she was a famous actress because of her beauty. All of the Quinn women were beautiful inside and out. Mary is Walking in the Sunshine with the Holy Spirit. Rest in Peace Mary.
