“ Dear Jean, Njema and Robinson family,

I want to send my deepest condolences for the death of your loved one Michael. Although I have never had the pleasure to meet Michael, I felt like I knew him each time I would speak with Jean, and was truly saddened to hear of his passing.

Jean and Njema, I am praying that you both find the solace you will need among each other through this trying time. I know your husband and father will forever be with you in your hearts and within all the memories you all shared.

Blessings!
