

Mr. Michael R. Rodick

July 7, 1992 - June 5, 2025

Mr. Michael R. Rodick, of Pittsfield, passed away at his home surrounded by his loving family, on Thursday, June 5, 2025, after a brief yet courageous battle with brain cancer, and just one month shy of celebrating his 33rd birthday. Born in Pittsfield, MA, on July 7, 1992, son of Judith Bromback Rodick and the late Robert Rodick, he graduated from Pittsfield High School with the class of 2010.

Most recently, Michael enjoyed working at the Popcorn Wagon in Pittsfield, from where many remember his smiling face and warm personality.

Among many things, Michael loved wrestling and bowling and also enjoyed playing video games. He was an avid New York Yankees fan.

Michael was happiest when surrounded by friends and family, whether going on car rides with his mom, brother, and sister-in-law, or spending time with his beloved dog and cat, Makota and Isabella, both of whom he adored.

Besides his mother, Judith Rodick, Michael is survived by his brother, Christopher Rodick (Penny), as well as his uncles, John Bromback and Daniel Bromback. He also leaves behind several other uncles, aunts, cousins, and friends, all too numerous to count.

Michael was predeceased by his father, Robert Rodick, as well as his uncles, John Rodick and James Rodick, and his aunt Stephanie Rodick. Additionally, he was predeceased by his grandparents, John and Clare Bromback, and John and Helen Rodick.

Though Michael's life was much shorter than we would have ever hoped, we find solace in the fact that he loved every single moment of it and is now at peace, reunited with his family in heaven.

Funeral Notice:

“ I remember when Michael was born and Mommy wasn't feeling well so I came over to sit with Michael. lol Michael had to play with your hair to fall asleep. He played with my hair so long I ended up with a stiff neck, he would doze off but, as soon as I moved he would wake up. So it was back to him wrapping his tiny hand around a lock of my hair.
