

Mrs. Monica Oboyski

November 3, 1920 - December 2, 2019

Mrs. Monica Oboyski, 99, of Pittsfield, passed away on Monday, December 2, 2019. Born in Adams, MA, on November 3, 1920, the daughter of the late Joseph and Julia Kohanic Soja, she graduated from Adams High School in 1938.

Monica is well-known for working for her family-owned store, Oboyski's Market, from 1946 until it's closing in 1995. She was also employed by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts as a clerical worker for the Department of Transitional Assistance for much of her career. Before this, she worked at a variety of different places, such as Berkshire Auto, England Brothers, and the Richmond Bakery in Adams, MA.

Mrs. Oboyski sang in the Holy Family Church Choir for 50 years. She was a member of the Rosary Solidarity as well as the Mother's Guild. Additionally, she was known for her love of dancing.

Besides her son, Daniel J. Oboyski, Monica is survived by her grandson, Jeffrey D. Oboyski and his wife Dominique as well as their two children, Makena and Wade Oboyski. She was predeceased by her beloved husband, Edward W. Oboyski.

“ Dear Danny and Family,
Please accept our deepest sympathy and prayers. It was always a pleasure to see Monica and have a conversation with her. It was lovely to see her at the Polish Picnic at St. Joseph's Church in her original Polish outfit. She will be missed but we know you have many wonderful memories of her to carry in your heart. She will always be there. Know that we are here for you. Love and prayers.
