

Nathan T. Giles

September 17, 1979 - April 16, 2024

Nathan T. Giles, 44, of Pittsfield, passed away unexpectedly on Tuesday, April 16, 2024. Born in North Adams, MA, on September 17, 1979, son of Denise Gregoire and the late Wayne Giles, he graduated from Hoosac Valley High School and later earned his associate's degree in Automotive Technology and Management from Wyoming Technical Institute.

Nathan was currently employed at the West Stockbridge Market as manager. Prior to that, he worked for Time Warner Spectrum as a service technician.

Beer brewing was his passion. He also enjoyed the company of animals (sometimes more than people), especially that of his dogs, Daisy, Betty, and Gus.

Nathan is survived by his beloved wife of 13 years, the former Tisha Goodwin, whom he married on June 13, 2010. He leaves behind his two children, Jasper (Aria) Giles and Brady Donald. He is also survived by his sister, Dawn Marie Mott, his brother-in-law, Matt Mott, and his niece Kaitlin Mott; his brothers-in-law, Josh Duquette (Amazaday), and Sam Duquette (Hannah), as well as father-in-law, John Goodwin (Judy Walters).

Besides his father, he was predeceased by his grandparents, Albert and Doris Gregoire and Walter and Blanche Giles, as well as his cousin, Jessica Gregorie White.
