“ What can I say? You were the absolute love of my life. My high school boyfriend, my best friend, my ride or die (and I hate that phrase, but that’s what you were) ! You were ALWAYS there for me, we grew up together. We learned so much from each other. We were supposed to get married some day. Now I have to go on with Benny with out you, and I am absolutely heart broken. We were so young and in love. I can’t believe you’re gone. I know you’re my soul mate and loved me more than anyone ever has. I’ll never have love like that, and I’m so sad. If love could have saved you Nicholas you would have lived forever. Benny and I love you so much! ❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ I have so many memories of Nick from high school, spending time with him at the apartment he shared with my best friend, and him being the loving father of their son. Nick was quick-witted and very funny. He was also considerate, even when he didn’t have a lot, he always made sure to offer to share whatever he did have. These are the memories I will be sure to share with Ben as he grows to be the son that will surely have Nick sending proud smiles down from Heaven.
