

Mr. Norman C. McClintock

April 4, 1944 - April 11, 2024

Mr. Norman C. McClintock, of Dalton, passed away on Thursday, April 11, 2024, just one week after celebrating his 80th birthday. Born in Pittsfield, MA on April 4, 1944, son of the late Fenton and Sara Bornak McClintock, he graduated from PHS with the class of 1963. Norman then attended classes at the University of Arizona.

For the majority of his career, Norman was employed by Beloit Jones, where he worked in their installation and repair department. It was from there that he retired after 25 years of dedicated service.

Among many things, he enjoyed playing the stock market.

Norman is survived by his brother, Craig McClintock, as well as several nieces and nephews.

Besides his parents, he was predeceased by his brother, Robert McClintock.

Funeral Notice:

A private graveside service for Norman McClintock was held at Pittsfield Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, donations in Norman's memory can be made to the Wounded Warriors Project in care of the Dwyer Funeral Home. Please visit www.dwyerfuneral.com to leave condolences and remembrances.

Cemetery Details

Pittsfield Cemetery

203 Wahconah St.
Pittsfield, MA 01201