

Patricia A. Brayman

April 20, 1946 - May 6, 2016

Patricia A. Brayman, 70, of Lenox, passed away on Friday, May 6, 2016 at Berkshire Medical Center surrounded by friends and family. Patricia daughter of the late Alice Bennett was born on April 20, 1946 in North Adams.

Patty became a part of the BCARC family in 1986 joining her friends at Lakeway Drive who had the pleasure of her company for nearly 28 years. She attended Southgate Day Program until it closed and transferred to Crossroads Day Program up until 2016. Patty brought out the best in everyone – she easily made her preferences known and enjoyed activities such as; musical events, dinner dances, dining out, massages as well as spa days. Patty volunteered by baking homemade dog biscuits for the Humane Society for several years.

Many staff had the pleasure of working with Patty most notably Carol, Linda, Natasha and Sharon who worked with her for many years. Her presence will be greatly missed by peers and staff at Lakeway, Lenox and Crossroads. In addition to her sister, Alice LaFountain, her niece Terri LaFountain and nephew Arthur LaFountain. Patricia is also survived by several siblings and many nieces and nephews.

A special thanks to Dr. Alsmann and the CCU unit at Berkshire Medical Center for their support and care throughout her illness. The thoughtfulness and respect shown during this journey truly validated and recognized the impact that Patty had on so many.
