

Mrs. Patricia "Pat" MacWhinnie

December 23, 1933 - August 1, 2022

Mrs. Patricia A. Clark MacWhinnie, 88, of Pittsfield, passed away at her home on Monday, August 1, 2022. She was a beloved wife for nearly 60 years, as well as a loving caretaker, teacher, and friend of three generations of children.

Over her life, Pat worked in a bakery and as a bookkeeper at her husband's accounting firm.

Among many things, she enjoyed reading, traveling (especially to the beach), and bowling, where she was a member of the Four Seasons League at Candle Lanes. Pat was also a member of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

Her greatest joy, however, came from food and family. Nothing made her happier than having everybody together with a good meal, and she was sure to teach her family the importance of planning trips around where you're going to have lunch!

Pat was predeceased by her husband, Raymond O. MacWhinnie, her son Kenneth MacWhinnie, and her daughter, Linda Yon-Kudlate. She is survived by her sons, Raymond MacWhinnie (Janet), of Ulster, PA, and Thomas MacWhinnie of SC; her daughters, Deborah Sorensen (Carl) of Pittsfield, and Karen MacWhinnie of NH; 15 grandchildren and many grandchildren-in-laws; and 26 great-grandchildren. Pat also leaves behind her sister, Nancy Sheerin of Port Charlotte, FL, and two brothers, Donald Clark of Baltimore, MD and William Clark of Miami, FL.
