

Mrs. Patricia "Pat" Rech

May 9, 1947 - December 23, 2022

Mrs. Patricia "Pat" V. Rech, 75, of Cheshire, passed away on Friday, December 23, 2022. Born in Queens, NY on May 9, 1947, the daughter of the late Aldo and Frances Vignali, she graduated from St. Agnes High School and would go on to earn her Master's in Education from SUNY Cortland.

Pat was employed by Pittsfield Public Schools, where she worked as a middle school teacher at Reid Middle School until her retirement in 2015. Prior to teaching in Pittsfield, Pat taught in other various local and New York State schools.

Among many things, she enjoyed gardening, decorating for holidays, shopping, baking, reading books, watching her granddaughter Christy play lacrosse, and playing with her grand dog Bauer. During COVID, Pat enjoyed completing puzzles and playing card games with her husband Bill.

Patricia is survived by her beloved husband of 54 years, William E. Rech, whom she married on July 13, 1968. She leaves behind a son William A. Rech, daughter-in-law Michele Rech, and granddaughter, Christiane Rech.

Patricia was predeceased by both of her parents and several aunts and uncles.

“ Our deepest sympathies to the Rech Family on the passing of Pat.

She was such a wonderful, kind-hearted woman whom we enjoyed chatting with at lacrosse games. It was obvious how much she loved and was proud of all her family.

May your beautiful memories of Pat bring you peace and comfort.
