

Patricia M. Troy

January 22, 1930 - May 13, 2016

Patricia M. Troy, 86, passed away Friday, May 13, 2016 at Mount Greylock Extended Care Facility in Pittsfield, MA, surrounded by her loving family. Born on January 22, 1930 the daughter of William and Beryl Grand Legge, she was a 1948 graduate of Pittsfield High School. While at PHS she was a cheerleader and met the love of her life Don Troy.

Patricia and Don married shortly after graduation and were soon raising their family. They had six children in 10 years and Patricia's focus and energy were directed on her children and running their home. Their first child Patti Ann was special needs. Patricia was devoted to all her children, but Patti Ann's challenges required extraordinary attention, which Patricia fulfilled with unending devotion. Patti Ann's sixty years on earth were happy and comfortable, because of her mother's dedication, patience and love.

When the children were older Patricia worked at Harry's Supermarket on Wahconah Street and was always known to greet her customers with a smile and a friendly word.

Patricia is survived by her children, Pamela Schultz, Donald Troy and his wife Lori, Daniel Troy and his wife Sheri, daughter Julie Troy and son James Troy. Patricia also leaves her sister, Joyce McGuire; 14 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren.

Patricia is predeceased by her husband Don (who passed too early in March 1989 at 59) her daughter Patti Ann and her grandson Adam Troy, her sister Virginia Daley and her brother William Legge.

“ To all of Pat's family,
My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this sad time.
I will always remember the fun we had years ago while working at Harry's. Both she and Don were a great couple.
Sincerely, Fran Ferdyn

“ Our thoughts & prayers are with your family on the loss of your Mom
, Pat.
I grew up with her and graduated from High School with Pat & Don.
They were a wonderful couple. We shared many great memories.
She will be remembered in our prayers. Rest in Peace.
