

Mrs. Patricia D. Woodlock

March 17, 1934 - September 6, 2022

Patricia Drennan Woodlock, 88, of Pittsfield, Massachusetts, passed away on 06 September, 2022 surrounded by her family.

Patricia was born to parents James C Drennan and Catherine Cullen Drennan, on 17 March 1934 and lived her full life in her beloved Berkshires. A graduate of St. Joseph High School in 1951 and Trinity College, Washington, DC in 1955, Patricia worked as an elementary and middle school teacher for more than 30 years at Allendale Elementary and throughout the school system. She was always so proud of her students and enjoyed teaching multiple generations of Pittsfield families.

She enjoyed traveling and visiting more than a dozen countries across Europe, Africa, and Asia. An avid gardener, Patricia was chosen for the 1999 Pittsfield Garden Tour. She served as Junior League President from 1972-74 and was also the Chair of the Friends of the Berkshire Atheneum and President of the Trinity College Alumnae Association.

Patricia married Michael Francis Woodlock, Jr. on August 3, 1963, in Pittsfield, MA. Together they raised 2 children: James Michael Woodlock of Somerset, NJ, and John Kevin Woodlock of Goldsboro, NC.

Patricia is survived by her two sons, a Daughter-In-Law, Vanessa Fenwick

Woodlock, and two grandchildren, Sebastian George Woodlock and Georgina Grace Woodlock of NC. She is also survived by two nieces, Megan Meline, and Jocelyn Drennan, and a nephew, Daniel Drennan. She would also like to acknowledge and thank her very dear cousins, Ann and Jack O'Brien, and their children Kristin, Jennifer, and Matthew.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Michael, and her brother James C. Drennan of Albuquerque, NM.

Patricia spent her life giving to others and we take comfort knowing that the love and compassion that she shared will continue to live on within those fortunate enough to have known her.
