“Pete was married to my husband's sister Sandy. Over the years we were lucky enough to be able to call him a dear friend as well. Anyone who knew Pete knows he had a kind and loving nature. Anyone who knew Pete knows he was completely devoted to his daughter and granddaughter - they brought him a great deal of joy. This gentle man brought such happiness into Sandy's life. Some people go their entire lives and never meet their soul mate....God blessed Sandy with her soul mate and Sandy was Pete's soul mate...anyone who spent any time with them could easily see this. Their time together was all too short, but oh so precious. We will miss you dear friendwe have lost a gentle soul on this earth, but you have left a legacy of love.
