

Mr. Ralph P. Frieri

June 22, 1922 - April 2, 2015

Mr. Ralph P. Frieri, 92, of 151 Draper Ave. passed away peacefully on Thursday, April 02, 2015 at home surrounded by his family. Born in Pittsfield on June 22, 1922 the son of Pasquale and Rose Mazzeo Frieri, he was a graduate of Pittsfield High School.

Mr. Frieri worked for General Electric in Pittsfield for 25 years as a Drill Press Operator in the Power Transformer Division, retiring in 1984.

He was a lifelong resident of Pittsfield and a communicant of the former Mount Carmel Church.

Mr. Frieri was a member of the Sons of Italy ITAM 564 Lodge, the Ralph J. Froio Senior Center and a member of the GE Quarter Century and Pensioners Club. He enjoyed spending time with his family and taking day trips with his beloved wife, Mary.

He is survived by his wife, the former Mary H. Dougherty, whom he married at St. Joseph Church on May 12, 1951; this May would have been their 64th wedding Anniversary. He is also survived by his beloved daughter and caregiver, Rosanne M. Frieri of Richmond, a son, Daniel J. Frieri and his wife Pam of Hinsdale, MA; three sisters, Elizabeth Brown, Marion Markham and Elaine Madden and several nieces and nephews.

The family of Mr. Frieri would like to thank HospiceCare in the Berkshires and especially his nurse Jen and caregivers, Tracy, Linda, Lisa and Rachel for the compassionate care they showed Ralph over the past nine months.
