

Mr. Richard "Dick" Shogry

April 3, 1945 - August 22, 2024

Mr. Richard "Dick". Shogry, formerly of Pittsfield, passed away on Thursday, August 22, 2024, shortly after celebrating his 79th birthday. Born in Pittsfield, MA, on April 3, 1945, son of the late Frank and Freida Farris Shogry, he graduated from Pittsfield High School.

Richard was a Vietnam War Veteran. He enlisted in the United States Army in 1962. It was there he proudly served his country until his honorable discharge as a Private in 1965.

Dick worked driving trucks, dedicating 35 years doing so. He was first employed by Youngstown Cartage and retired from Responsive Trucking in Agawam.

Among many things, Dick was an avid Yankees and Patriots fan. He enjoyed staying in to watch a good Western film, as well as dining out at many a fine restaurant.

Richard is survived by his lifetime partner, Susan Clark, his nephews, Paul Hashim and his son, Julian, and Mark Hashim and his wife Denise and daughter, Holly. "Daddy Dick" leaves behind his stepchildren whom he loved as his own, Christopher, Matthew, and Amanda. He is also survived by many extended family members.

Besides his parents, Richard was predeceased by his older sister, June Hashim, and his twin sister, Marion Shogry. He was also predeceased by his nephew, David Hashim.
