“ Rose was one of a kind. She had quite a sense of humor, loved a good game of cards and I won't forget the smokes before Gunsmoke! Other memories, how we laughed, how she would look her brother square in the eye and say "I don't even know where the key is, you took it" when questioned about the thermostat! I'm honored you used the picture of her I took. By now the message I left for her on the back of the picture with the cat has been found. Rose, you were a beautiful woman, with a beautiful soul and I'm sure you and Del will have the best gardens again soon. Blessed Be Rose I am better for having known you.
