

Ryan "Peanut" Paduano

March 13, 1999 - November 14, 2020

Ryan "Peanut" Paduano passed away unexpectedly on November 14, 2020 while walking his beloved dog, Brownie. He was born on March 13, 1999 in Pittsfield MA.

Ryan lived life to the fullest, always smiling and excited for the next adventure, be it lacrosse, skateboarding, bike riding, basketball, driving and off-roading with his Hyundai and Jeep, photography, video games, eating out, or anything to do with water and traveling (most recently to Cuba, Zion National Park and multiple family reunions). He loved his family, friends, kids, and all animals. He loved big hugs and saying, "I Love You".

Ryan is survived by his parents, Patricia and Loren Paduano of Pittsfield, brother Christopher (Alexandra) Paduano of Boston, sister Ashley Paduano of Pittsfield, Grandma Carol Bryant of Putney, VT, Nonno Vincenzo Paduano of Pittsfield. He leaves his Aunt Sue (Rudy) Rudolph of Berea KY, Uncle Bruce (Andrea) Bryant of Houston TX, Aunt Rosemary and Cousin Kathleen Bryant of Chatham, VA, Uncle Allan (Patsy) of Methuen MA, Uncle Robert (Melanie) and Cousin Aria Paduano of Pittsfield, MA. Ryan is also survived by his Bonus family, Brandon (Caroline) Todd of Pittsfield and Ray Caouette of Glenville NY. Godfamily Tina, Chris, Andrew and Anthony Karch and Goddaughter Frankee LeClair as well as many, many close friends (you know who you are!) and innumerable others who ever came in contact with him and his outsized personality. Ryan was predeceased by his Cousin Ian, Uncle Bob, Grandpa, Aunt Elda and Nonni. "Bye, Sugar"

“ For those who we love there is never enough time to enjoy their presence with us here. But it is especially painful when taken so young.

Trish, Ashley and Chris-there are no words to describe how sorry I am for your loss. May Ryan's memory be a blessing to you all. Ryan, I will always remember you for your sweetness. Warmest memories will no doubt include the times we all spent together walking Cookie and enjoying the beauty of the woods. And of course, the many times you and your sister hung out with your Mom and me at TJ Maxx. Oh and let's not forget the Country Buffet! As I recall you were a big fan of the mashed potatoes and jello was it? I remember your sister loving the cheese and broccoli soup :) You always made me smile.

It is impossible to think of your family without you there. So I won't. Because I know you are forever there with them-even when you can't be seen or felt in the same way.

You went too soon, Ryan. But if it was meant to be, it was with some mercy-with your loving and devoted Mom by your side and your dog Brownie. Enjoying a walk together. Enjoying life together. You will be sorely missed.

*Love Always,
"Miss Diane"*

“ Dear Trish, Loren, Chris (Alie), Ashley (Ray), there are no words to express how sorry we are for your loss. Ryan was full of life and he enjoyed the time he had on earth. He will be greatly missed. We loved him and will cherish all the times we shared with him. He was always kind to Aria and made her feel special. She will especially smile when she thinks of Ryan when he escorted her at Chris and Alie’s wedding. She was so proud. We will miss you and will be looking for the signs to let us know you are with us. God bless and keep smiling down on us. We need as much sunshine as we can get! Next batch of oatmeal cookies will be done in your honor! Love you always and forever. Watch over mom and dad and Chris/Alie, Ashley/Ray and Brownie and all of us. We need all the help we can get! Love , Uncle Robert , Aunt Melanie , cousin Aria and Sheena

I will miss stealing food off the table before Thanksgiving meal with you. Uncle Robert

“ My dawg.. I don't even know where to start cause your life was never supposed to be this short. Thru these last 6 years we been around each other we use to do everything with each other. We got matching tattoos we went out to eat all the time we sold our favorite things jus so we can get a tattoo before I left for Atlanta. The first time you got drunk was with me an Joey back in my foster home back in 2015 an we got arrested together for the first time over some dumb stuff 😂 thats why your mom an dad always hated me but it never stopped you from coming to hang an show love to me all the time. Thru all the fights an ups and downs we had I know deep down you always had love for me an I always foshoo had love for you. Imma miss you nut you gonna forever live thru me an the gang LLN💙
