

Mrs. Sara DiNicola

September 17, 1962 - January 22, 2020

Mrs. Sara DiNicola, 57, of Pittsfield, passed away peacefully at Berkshire Medical Center on Wednesday, January 22, 2020, surrounded by her loving family. Born in Great Barrington, MA, on September 17, 1962, the daughter of Margaret Riiska Menatti and the late Elio Menatti, she attended Salve Regina University in Newport, Rhode Island.

In her earlier career, Sara worked at the Great Barrington Waste Water Treatment Plant. When her children were born, she left the treatment plant, focusing on raising her family with love and care. Once her children were older, Sara went back to work as a Bus Monitor for the City of Pittsfield, and at the Pittsfield Stop and Shop.

Sara loved animals, especially cats. She enjoyed being outdoors, where she would ride her bike on the bike trail. She had a special knack for arts and crafts and could always make something beautiful out of the simplest of objects. Most important to Sara, however, was the time she spent with her family.

Besides her beloved husband, Daniel DiNicola, whom she married on December 25, 1988, Sara is survived by her mother, and her children, Tara DiNicola, David DiNicola, Dhani DiNicola, and Anna DiNicola. She also leaves behind her siblings, Mary Menatti, Peter Menatti, and Joan Bruno, as well as many dear nieces and nephews. Sara was predeceased by her father.

“ I went to high school with Sara. Sara was a kind and gentle person . A great friend. I remember walking up Housatonic Street and Sara had written a paper on bees and proceeded to show me the figure eight pattern bees flew using both lanes of the roadway. We laughed until we cried so many times. I will miss her great spirit. I am sorry her family has to feel the pain of her loss. She will be missed.
