

Shane A. Gaetani

March 12, 1967 - April 13, 2024

Shane Anthony Gaetani, of Pittsfield, Massachusetts, passed away unexpectedly at Berkshire Medical center on April 13, 2024, just one month after celebrating his 57th birthday. Born in Pittsfield, Massachusetts, on March 12, 1967, the son of the late Charles and Patricia Wager Gaetani on March 12, 1967, he was educated in the Pittsfield Public Schools.

Shane began his career in the meat department working his way up to meat manager at local grocery stores throughout the county.

In his spare time, he took up a hobby in karate earning a black belt. Shane was an avid lover of music, cars, trains, flowers, fishing and most recently cats. Throughout the years he taught himself how to play drums and bass guitar, playing out at local bars. For many years he volunteered at WTBR working as a radio show host for the rockfest. He volunteered at many events throughout the county with the radio station, most recently being the “Cop on Top” event.

Shane leaves behind a brother Mark Gaetani, of Pittsfield, 2 daughters Kayla Gaetani (Harold Rood) of Pittsfield, and Heather Gaetani of Dalton, as well as their mother Michelle Drake, of Pittsfield. He is survived by his granddaughter, Alarah Rood of Pittsfield, as well as his companion Patricia Rosa, of Pittsfield, and his 3 beloved cats.

Until we meet again, "Keep on rockin' in the free world."
