

Ms. Shelley A. Kueppers

April 29, 1972 - October 9, 2023

Ms. Shelley Kueppers, 51, of Port Orange, FL, formerly of Dalton, MA, passed away unexpectedly on Monday, October 9, 2023. Born in Pittsfield, MA, on April 29, 1972, the daughter of Richard and Margaret Pappin Baumann, she graduated from Wahconah High School and later from Berkshire Community College. Shelley became a licensed massage therapist from Bancroft School of Massage Therapy.

For much of her career, Shelley taught the art of massage at Mildred Ellie in Pittsfield. She also worked at Reynolds, Barnes, and Heb Insurance Agency, as well as secretary for Gene Shalit of NBC in West Stockbridge.

Among many things, Shelley was extremely fond of astronomy and loved watching the stars. She enjoyed refurnishing old furniture from the side of the road, truly making treasure from what could be considered “one man’s trash.”

Shelley is survived by her son, Colin Kueppers, as well as her parents, Dick and Peg Bauman. She leaves behind her sister, Heather Gingras (Dan), as well her brother, Derek Baumann (Sharon). Shelley is survived by her nieces, Brittany, Kaitlyn and Nikki Gingras, and Brooke Baumann, nephew, Dalton Baumann, as well as her great nephew and niece, Cayden Gaylord and Lainey Kolwalczyk.

While Shelley will be sorely missed, she will always be remembered for her willingness to give, the kindness she exuded, and her genuine, loving heart.

“ So sorry for your loss. Shelley and Heather were always such cuties. Love the pictures. Haven't seen either of the girls in ages. My foster grandma Edith Galusha dated their grandpa George.
