“ Ann and family, I enjoyed working with Steve these past couple of years. It was especially fun to hear his take on the Sox. He was adamant that they pull the pitchers at the first sign of weariness! May he rest in peace.

“ Paul, I was saddened to hear of your Dad's passing. I have many fond memories of Steve when I was a manager of the Firestone Store on South Street in Pittsfield and he took care of our windows. He was such a kind and friendly man, always a pleasure to speak with him. He was blessed with a long and happy life; I'm sure that you are as proud of him as I was to have know him. And now he is home with our Lord and Savior, for which we can rejoice in his eternal happiness.

“Dad was never a burden. He was so happy to celebrate his 94th birthday - just a week before going to be with the Lord. His kids will never forget his proding to do each and every job "quick, clean, neat and effecient". I wonder if their are windows in Heaven. If so, dad and his brother, John, are making sure that God's view upon the world is crystal clear! A few hours before you slipped away, you told us that it would be a blessing. Thanks for preparing us, Dad. Our Love for you will never falter.
