

Mrs. Susan C. Whitney

November 12, 1943 - January 9, 2025

Susan Catherine (Balle) Whitney, 81, widow of Robert “Bob” Eugene Whitney, passed away peacefully surrounded by family and friends in Newport News, VA on January 9, 2025. Sue was born on November 12, 1943, and grew up in Amsterdam, NY. She graduated from Wilbur H. Lynch High School in Amsterdam and then went on to complete the administrative business program at Mildred Ellie in Albany, NY. Early in her career, she worked in various office positions for General Electric where she met Bob in Schenectady, NY. They married on August 17, 1974, and moved between Delmar, NY and Pittsfield, MA, ultimately settling in Pittsfield in the early 1980’s. Sue worked as a secretary for Local 473 Labor Union in Pittsfield and retired in 2000. After Bob passed in 2017, she moved to be near her daughter Tara and family in Newport News, VA.

Sue was a parishioner of St. Mary’s and St. Francis in Pittsfield and St. Agnes in Dalton, MA. She was known to her family and friends as ‘Grandma Sue’, ‘GiGi’, and ‘Suzie-Q’. Her interests included decorating, knitting, arts and crafts, golfing, occasional trips to the casino, thrifting at the ‘GW’, enjoying the sun, and playing catch. In retirement, she became a very talented artist, and enjoyed painting the beauty of rural landscapes, buildings, and lighthouses. She loved entertaining, cooking, and hosting friends and family for parties and holidays. Sue was famous for her wine, cosmos, kitchen dance parties, singalongs, and arm-wrestling challenges. Sue provided a home that was always filled with love, laughter, and music. She was extremely generous, kind, patient, loyal, and lovingly honored the unique skills and passions of each person.

Sue is preceded in death by her parents, Arthur and Catherine Balle, and her husband, Bob.

Sue's family would like to thank everyone that enriched her life and cared for her so deeply during her time in Virginia – friends in the Hilton Village area, the staff and residents at The Arbors Independent Living, the nursing staff at Hidenwood Assisted Living, the pastoral ministry team at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Catholic Church, and the Riverside Hospice Care Team.

“ Tara (& family) - So very sorry for your loss. Sue was a unique individual; a pleasure to be around. She would happily do anything for anyone. She was always smiling and laughing and you knew you were going to have fun if she was there. My favorite memory was one year at a GE Christmas party our boss gave us all a Buyers Choice Caroler. Sue was delighted when she opened hers and she made everyone at the party give her Caroler a kiss! Everyone was hysterical laughing - she sure knew how to bring people together. You had great parents, Tara. You are one of the lucky ones. Cherish your many wonderful memories. Rest in peace Sue.
