

Mrs. Sylvia May Robak

April 8, 1934 - July 21, 2018

Sylvia May (LaFountain) Robak, born on April 8, 1934 in Pittsfield, Massachusetts, to the late George and Daisy LaFountain and loving wife to Walter E Robak, passed away at the age 84 on July 21, 2018 at her home in Lanesborough from a long illness.

Mrs. Robak attended Pittsfield public schools. She worked in the garment and accessories industry at Berkshire Coat Factory as a furrier and purse maker before leaving in 1969 for the birth of her only child. She was a full-time homemaker until returning to work in 1985 where she was self-employed in the Healthcare industry as a Personal Care Attendant until her retirement in 2005.

Sylvia was married on October 20, 1951 to Walter E Robak, also of Pittsfield. They were married 67 years.

She was preceded in death by her brothers, Harold LaFountain and Edward Lafountain; sister, Norma Lampman. She is survived by her husband Walter; her daughter, Sharon; nephew, Howard LaFountain; and longtime friend, Stephanie Barcher.

Sylvia enjoyed writing poems, embroidering, and making yearly pilgrimages to South Yarmouth, Cape Cod, with her daughter.

“ So sad to lose such a sweet woman. Sylvia was always so welcoming and kind whenever I would come over to visit. She may have left this world but she will remain in our minds and hearts until it's time to reunite. May she rest in peace.
