

Mrs. Theresa Layden

June 22, 1924 - July 7, 2020

Mrs. Theresa Layden, 96, of Pittsfield, passed away at home on Tuesday, July 7, 2020, surrounded by her loving family. Born in Pittsfield, MA, on June 22, 1924, the daughter of the late Joseph and Marjorie Roberston Amuso, she graduated from Pittsfield High School in 1942.

While Theresa worked for GE Ordnance Systems for a few years and was as an inserter for the Berkshire Eagle after her retirement, her primary focus was her family, who brought her such joy and happiness.

She was a talented craftswoman who had a myriad of crafting hobbies. Of those, Theresa especially enjoyed sewing, knitting, quilting, and crocheting. She was kind, compassionate, and always put the needs of others before her own.

Theresa was predeceased by her beloved husband of 61 years, John Layden, whom she married on May 3, 1947 at Mount Carmel Church. John passed away in 2008. She is survived by her sons, Dennis Layden (Mary) and Michael Layden (Alice) with whom she made her home, as well as her daughter, Jean Martin (David). She leaves behind her brothers, David, Mert and John Amuso, and her sister, Diana Cormier. Theresa is also survived by her grandchildren, Rachel, Eric, Ryan, Stephanie, Michael, Kimberly, Jennifer, and Lindsey, her great-grandchildren, Shelby, Emily, Evelyn, Colin, Jennah, Kiersten, and Lincoln, as well as her great-great grandchildren, Aubriella and Jasmine. She was predeceased by her brothers, Joseph, Mark, and James Amuso.

Theresa's family would like to extend their sincere gratitude to HospiceCare in the Berkshires, and a special thank you to Cathy MacPhail, for their kindness and compassion throughout this difficult time.

“ When we were kids my sister made a chocolate dessert out of our cereal that we would eat in the morning. She wanted us to have something different instead of cereal everyday. That is my favorite memory of my sister. We will all miss you.

Love your brother,
John

“ My dear Auntie was a very talented baker. There was always some kind of delightful treat coming out of the oven. She always had marshmallow fluff in her pantry, and one of her brothers always. Grabbed a spoon on his way into her home so he could get a spoonful of fluff. She, with her very funny sense of humor decided one day to fill the fluff jar with shaving cream. Needless to say, her brother never again trusted her fluff 🙄.

This is how I choose to remember one of the most honest, kind, and empathetic women I know. I will remember her as the beautiful human being she was. God bless you Aunt Theresa.

She was one of a kind. I learned a lot from her. She was such a gentle and loving soul. One of my favorite times was after 9am Sunday Mass at St Charles when she and her family would visit us. Margaret Beattie Seery.
