

Timothy Astore Jr.

March 20, 1984 - August 7, 2019

Timothy Astore, Jr., 35, of Dorchester, MA., passed away on Wednesday, August 7, 2019. Born in Pittsfield, MA, on March 20, 1984, the son of Timothy Astore Sr., and Elizabeth Squires, he attended Pittsfield schools and later obtained his GED.

Timothy was a dedicated employee of the Legal Harborside restaurant, where he worked diligently as server.

Timothy enjoyed music and playing the guitar. He was also known for his love of both Mustangs and motorcycles. His Siberian Husky, Max, always put a smile on his face.

Timothy will be remembered by his kind personality, and by the genuine care that he had for everyone around him. He was not only honest, but was loyal, and always respectful. He was outgoing, full of humor, and his contagious smile could light up the room.

Besides his parents, Timothy leaves behind a great friend and role model, Ryan Sabourin. He is also survived by his brother; Anthony Astore (Amber Dargi); and his sisters, Jessica Astore and Desiree Dufur. Timothy leaves behind his nieces; Harmynie Astore, Sincerity Astore, Audriah Astore, Lydia Turner; his nephew, Lyrenzo Astore; and his beloved uncles. Timothy is also survived by many other cherished relatives and adored friends.

“ Timothy grew up with us on Curtis Terrace. My brother Chris was a good friend. Tim had a way of brightening a room with his Ora. He was so funny and had a great personality. He will always be a big memory of my childhood. I wish his family healing most of all. God bless them and Tim.

Sincerely Amanda Kassmieh

“ There’s far too many but here’s one. It was Christmas Timmy and I were kids. We got this big toboggan sled, and we had just watched home alone. So we thought we would bundle up go to the top of the stairs and ride this thing right out the front door to the side walk. (As seen in movie) So it was a epic fail we fly down the stairs only to come crashing into the side of the door hahaha but kept trying hahaha bro I love you you helped me in ways I’m not sure you’ll ever know. But I believe you may know you’ve always been the inspiration in my life. My goal was always to be like you and i feel as much as you made me proud. I’ve made you’ve proud and I vow to live my best life brother. Gone never forgotten. Always in my heart my nig. (Inside joke) love you Timothy my hero bro
