

Todd R. Gerlach

May 31, 1966 - January 12, 2026

Todd R. Gerlach, 59, of North Adams, formerly of Lee, passed away Monday, January 12, 2026. He was born on May 31, 1966 to Marion E. Gerlach and the late Richard M. Gerlach. He grew up in Lee and was a graduate of Lee High School. Todd attended the day program at BFAIR in North Adams for many years until the time of his passing.

Todd was a gentle soul who had the biggest smile, with the biggest heart!! Todd loved listening to music from country to classic rock and enjoyed taking long rides rocking out to his music. He liked watching game shows, especially Wheel of Fortune, playing UNO, and watching football—he was a New England Patriots fan. Todd loved asking questions and talking about anything and everything. He always enjoyed a bowl of ice cream! Todd loved spending time with his family and had a special bond with his brother-in-law, Steve. Todd was truly a special guy who will be missed!

Left to cherish Todd's memory are his mother, Marion Gerlach of Pittsfield; sister Katherine Boos (Stephen) of Pittsfield; brother Scott Gerlach (Cynthia) of Warwick, RI.; nephews Michael (Alison), Connor (Mariah), Hunter and Brody. Great nephew Ethan and great niece Riley. Todd also leaves behind aunts, uncles and many cousins, his extended family on Birchwood Drive & his friends at BFAIR.

Todd was predeceased by his father, Richard M. Gerlach in 2015.

Funeral Notice:

A celebration of Todd's life will be held in the Spring.
