

Mr. Walter Robak

November 4, 1927 - January 28, 2023

Mr. Walter Robak, 95, of Lanesborough, passed away on Saturday, January 28, 2023. Born in Pittsfield, MA, on November 4, 1927, the son of the late Walter and Agnes Makszyska Robak, he graduated from Pittsfield High School with the class of 1946.

Walter was a Korean War Veteran. He served a tour of duty with the United States Army in 1954 to 1956, where he operated a personal transport boat in the Philippine Islands.

Upon returning home, Walter was employed by General Electric in the Transformer Division. It was from there that he retired in 1988, after 38 years of dedicated service. Following his years at General Electric, Walter spent 20 years with Pittsfield Plastics Engineering, working as a Corporate Courier.

Among many things, he enjoyed being outdoors, especially when gardening. He also loved doing various handyman projects. Walter was quite athletic and was a member of the 1947 Northern Berkshire Championship, where he played as both an accomplished outfielder and pitcher.

Walter was predeceased by his beloved wife of 67 years, the former Sylvia LaFountain. Sylvia passed away in 2018, also his two brothers, John and Julian, and one sister, Wanda.

He leaves behind his daughter, Sharon Robak of Lanesborough

Funeral Notice:
