

Mr. Winthrop F. Wyckoff

October 17, 1938 - February 16, 2022

Mr. Winthrop F. Wyckoff, 83, formerly of Pittsfield MA, passed away on Wednesday, February 16, 2022 surrounded by family. Born on October 17, 1938, the son of the late Fred and Florence Barile Wyckoff, he graduated from Pittsfield High School with the class of 1956.

Winthrop was employed by Beloit Jones where he worked as a drafting supervisor. It was from there that he retired after 44 years of dedicated service. After retiring he loved his time working at Bellissimo Dolce in Pittsfield. He also served in the army reserves from 1956-1962.

Among many things, he enjoyed gardening, dancing and spending time with his family and friends. He was also a long-time member of the Elks Lodge #272 of Pittsfield, MA, where he enjoyed both camaraderie and serving the community.

Winthrop is survived by his beloved wife of 48 years, the former Margaret Buckley Bissaillon, whom he married April 13, 1973. He leaves behind Daughters Kellie Wyckoff Fuller (Steve), Patty Bissaillon Reid (Dave), Colleen Wyckoff Wemple and sons Mike Bissaillon (Maureen) & David Wyckoff (Lynne), a sister Carole Wyckoff Campoli, grandchildren, Dylan Fuller and Jay Fuller; David Martino, Samantha Martino, Robbie Reid, Nevaeh Reid; Corey Wemple and Alexandra Wemple; Paige Bissaillon and Tom Bissaillon; and Lillian Wyckoff and Brandon Wyckoff, and many nieces and nephews.

“ Dear Marge and family, Our prayers and sincere sympathy on Win's transition to his heavenly home. We so enjoyed the Spring training baseball games we all attended over the years and the many dining and dancing nights at the Elks and Moose Lodges. Win always had an infectious smile and deeply loved being out and having a wonderful time.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time.

“ *Dear Marge and Family,
Please accept our deepest prayers and sympathy. Win had a very infectious smile letting people know he enjoyed everything. We can recall the great time we had at the Irish Village, on the Cape. Watching both of you dance was heart warming. Memories of other Pittsfield Irish Sister City events will stay with us, too. We know you will continue to keep Win close in your hearts. We were blessed to have known him.*
